

Speaker's Biography

Steven Stasys
Vice President of Sell Side Business Development at Eurex

Steven Stasys, Vice President Sell Side Business Development at Eurex, is part of the sales and business development team with a focus on the Americas. Steven has a wide range of experience in the derivatives industry, including on the trading side as a trader of fixed income and commodities options. Before joining Eurex, he held leadership roles in research and development and operations for a number of exchanges.

Steven has a Bachelor of Science in finance from Arizona State University.