Notes

I wasn't sure last week if we would get section 4.3 done in time for you to do homework, and because we will only just about have completed it on Wednesday Oct 28 this week I decided to make those questions due next week instead of this week. The quiz on Oct 29 will only be about sections 4.1 and 4.2.

We are not going to do section 4.4. The examples given there are from statistics, physics and economics, and are quite technical. Look at them if you want, but if time is short just go straight on to 5.1.
